Event Description:

On January 6, 2024, a guest lecture on Map Reading was conducted for NCC cadets by NB Sub Prajesh and Hav Bahubali from the 1(T) CTR NCC Battalion in Warangal. The session focused on the fundamental skills necessary for effective navigation and orientation in various terrains. The instructors emphasized the significance of understanding topographical maps, scales, and symbols, which are essential for planning and executing field operations. Through practical demonstrations, cadets learned how to accurately interpret map details and apply them in real-life scenarios. The interactive format encouraged participants to engage actively, ask questions, and gain hands-on experience in map reading techniques. This informative session aimed to enhance the cadets' preparedness for future training and operations, reinforcing their commitment to developing critical military skills necessary for effective leadership and teamwork in the field. Overall, the event was a valuable addition to their NCC training curriculum.
