Event Description:

On February 1, 2024, a guest lecture on Field Craft and Battle Craft was delivered by Hav Bahubali from the 1(T) CTR NCC Battalion in Warangal for NCC cadets. The session aimed to enhance the cadets' understanding of essential military skills and techniques critical for effective field operations. Hav Bahubali shared valuable insights into tactics, navigation, and teamwork, emphasizing the importance of discipline and strategy in various combat scenarios. The lecture included practical demonstrations and interactive discussions, allowing cadets to engage actively and clarify their queries. This informative session not only equipped the cadets with fundamental skills but also inspired them to appreciate the intricacies of military training. Overall, the event contributed significantly to their preparation and understanding of the responsibilities that come with being part of the armed forces, fostering a deeper commitment to their training and future service.
