Summary

On NCC Day, the NCC unit of SR University organized a vibrant awareness rally on social service, led by ANO Lt. Rajeshwar Rao. This event celebrated the values of the National Cadet Corps, emphasizing discipline, unity, and service to the community. The rally was designed to raise awareness about the importance of physical fitness, patriotism, and social responsibility, reflecting the core ethos of the NCC.

Cadets from SR University participated with great enthusiasm, marching in formation and showcasing the discipline that the NCC instills in its members. The rally passed through key areas around the campus, attracting the attention of students, faculty, and local residents. Posters and banners highlighted messages of national pride, unity, and community service. The event not only commemorated NCC Day but also aimed to inspire the youth to join the NCC and contribute to the nation's well-being. It was a day that reinforced the spirit of dedication and patriotism among the cadets and the larger community.
