Event Description:

On February 14, 2025, SR University solemnly observed Black Day in remembrance of the Pulwama attack, paying tribute to the brave CRPF personnel who sacrificed their lives for the nation. The event was organized by the NCC cadets, who led the initiative to honor the fallen heroes with dignity and respect.

The observance began with a candlelight tribute, where students, faculty, and staff gathered to offer their respects in silence. A moment of silence was observed to honor the martyrs, reflecting on their supreme sacrifice for the country.

Professor Deepak Garg, the Vice Chancellor of SR University, addressed the assembly, emphasizing the significance of the day and the resilience of the Indian Armed Forces. He spoke about the importance of unity, patriotism, and the unwavering spirit of the nation in the face of adversity.

The NCC cadets performed a tribute march, showcasing their solidarity with the armed forces. A documentary on the sacrifices made by India's security forces was also screened, instilling a deep sense of respect and responsibility among the attendees.

The event concluded with a pledge-taking ceremony, where students vowed to uphold national security, unity, and peace. The observance served as a poignant reminder of the sacrifices made for the nation's safety and the collective duty of every citizen to honor and support the armed forces.
