Support for COVID Warriors

Details of the Event:

Date of the Event : 30-03-2021
Name of the Event : Support for COVID Warriors
Venue : Online Mode

Objective:

The Support for COVID Warriors event organized by SR University NSS Unit-01 on June 21, 2020, aimed to acknowledge and support frontline workers during the COVID-19 pandemic. This initiative sought to provide essential supplies and resources, promote mental well-being, and express gratitude for their dedication and sacrifices.

Description:

The "Support for COVID Warriors" event as part of their commitment to community service. The event involved distributing essential supplies such as masks and sanitizers to healthcare workers and volunteers. Participants engaged in discussions about the challenges faced by COVID warriors and the importance of mental health support during these trying times.

Outcome:

The objective of the Support for COVID Warriors event held was to uplift the spirits of frontline workers and enhance community support for them. The program successfully raised awareness about the sacrifices made by these individuals, fostered community engagement in health initiatives, and contributed to a collective effort in combating the pandemic.

Impact on Society:

Organizing the Support for COVID Warriors event significantly strengthened community bonds and elevated awareness about the vital role played by frontline workers. It fostered a sense of gratitude and responsibility among community members, contributing to a more supportive and informed society during the pandemic.
