Objective :

The primary objective of the Kisan Diwas event organized by SR University National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit-01 on 23-12-2021, at Kamalapur Village, Hanumakonda was to honor and acknowledge the contributions of farmers to the country's economy and Society. This day commemorates the birth anniversary of Chaudhary Charan Singh, the fifth prime minister of India, who was a prominent leader and advocate for farmers right and agricultural reforms.

This initiative aimed to educate people about the key role of farmers in our country.

Description:

NSS Unit-01 organized a "Kisan Diwas" event at Kamalapur Village, Hanumakonda. The main purpose of the event was to recognize the contributions of farmers and raise awareness about the challenges they face. Tributes and memorials were made in honor of farmers, and workshops and seminars on modern farming technology were conducted to celebrate their hard work and significant role in ensuring the food supply.

Outcome:

Celebrating Kisan Diwas yields several positive outcomes, which can be categorized into social, economic, Educational and Cultural impacts. Here are some be key Outcomes:

1. Recognition and Respect
2. Community building
3. Highlighting Issues
4. Investment in Agriculture
5. Public Awareness
6. Youth Engagement
7. Encouragement of Biodiversity.

Impact on Society:

Organizing the Kisan Diwas event significantly improved the awareness of farmer's challenges. Provides farmers with new knowledge and technologies and highlights critical agricultural issues.
