Report on Consumer Awareness Program

Details of the Event:

Date of the Event : 12-10-2023
Name of the Event : Consumer Awareness Program
Venue : Hasanparthy Village
No. of Participants : 29

Objective:

The Consumer Awareness Program aimed to educate students and local residents about their rights and responsibilities as consumers. The initiative sought to empower individuals to make informed decisions, recognize unethical practices, and understand the importance of consumer protection laws.

Description:

On 12th October 2023, NSS conducted a Consumer Awareness Program at Hasanparthy Village. The program witnessed active participation from 29 attendees. The event featured informative sessions on consumer rights, common fraudulent practices, and the mechanisms available for grievance redressal. Volunteers performed role-plays to demonstrate scenarios of consumer exploitation and how to address them. The program also included discussions on the significance of ethical consumer behavior and sustainable consumption practices.

Outcome:

The program successfully raised awareness among participants about their rights as consumers and the tools available to protect them. It instilled confidence in individuals to identify and address issues related to consumer exploitation. NSS volunteers enhanced their communication and advocacy skills, fostering a deeper understanding of social responsibility.

Impact on Society:

The Consumer Awareness Program created a significant impact by educating the local community about their rights and the importance of making informed decisions. Participants left the session equipped to identify unethical practices and protect their interests as consumers. This initiative not only strengthened community resilience against fraud but also promoted the broader principles of fairness and accountability in consumer transactions.
