Anti-Tobacco Awareness Program

Details of the Event:

Date of the Event	: 15-03-2025
Name of the Event	: Anti-Tobacco Awareness Program
Venue	: Girmajipet Warangal Station Road
Time	: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM
No. of Participants	: 18

Objective:

Volunteered during the Anti-Tobacco Awareness Program, spreading awareness about the harmful effects of tobacco use and encouraging healthier lifestyle choices.

Description:

On 15th March 2025, the NSS Unit of SR University organized an Anti-Tobacco Awareness Program at Girmajipet Station Road, Warangal from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM. The event saw enthusiastic participation from 18 NSS volunteers, under the guidance of Dr. K. Ravindar, NSS Program Coordinator.

Volunteers conducted door-to-door campaigns, distributed informational pamphlets, and engaged in discussions to raise awareness about the dangers of tobacco use. They also provided information on tobacco cessation and supported community efforts to reduce tobacco consumption.

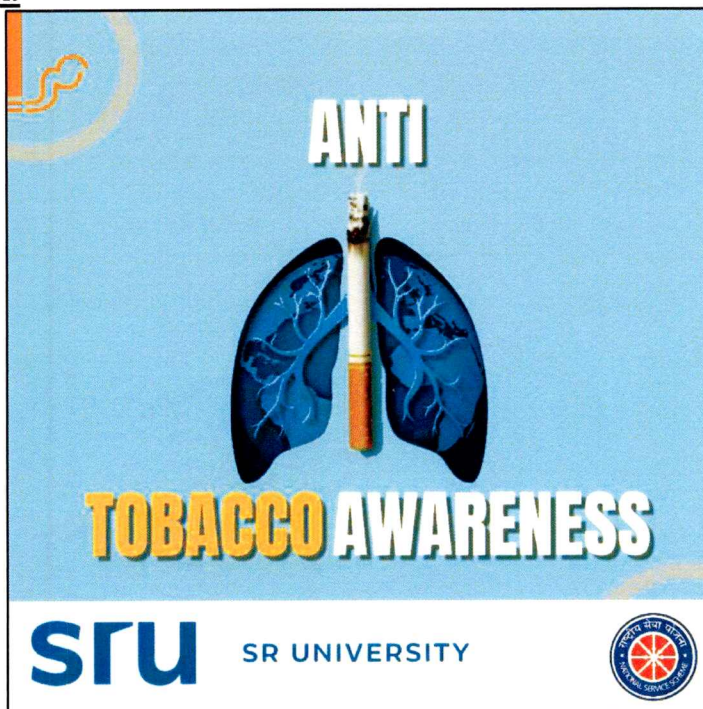

Outcome:

The program successfully engaged a significant number of villagers, especially youth and women. Volunteers played a vital role in delivering key messages about the risks of tobacco use, motivating many to adopt healthier habits and seek support for quitting tobacco.

Impact on Society:

This initiative contributed to improving community health awareness by informing people about the dangers of tobacco. It fostered a sense of social responsibility, encouraged healthier lifestyle choices, and empowered individuals to make informed decisions about their health.
