Objective:

The primary objective of this volunteering program was to support temple operations and assist devotees by maintaining order, providing guidance, and ensuring smooth movement during spiritual gatherings.

Description:

On 15th November 2024, 26 volunteers from the NSS Unit of SR University participated in a Temple Volunteering Program at Shamu Temple from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Under the guidance of NSS Coordinator Dr. K. Ravindar, volunteers engaged in various service-oriented activities.

These included guiding devotees, assisting elderly visitors, helping with queue management, distributing water, and maintaining cleanliness in and around the temple premises. Volunteers displayed discipline, empathy, and devotion throughout the activity.

Outcome:

The temple authorities appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers, noting improved crowd management and enhanced service quality during the event. Volunteers gained firsthand experience in community service, event management, and public interaction.

Impact on Society:

This initiative promoted the spirit of selfless service and enhanced the role of youth in cultural and spiritual community activities. It strengthened community ties and inspired others to volunteer for religious and public service events.
