Details of the Event:

Date of the Event	: 24-11-2024
Name of the Event	: Warangal Historical Run and Ride
Venue	: Fort Warangal
Time	: 08:00 AM – 10:00 AM
No. of Participants	: 23

Objective:

The objective of this volunteering initiative was to support a community fitness event promoting health, heritage, and civic participation by providing logistical and hospitality support to the event participants.

Description:

On 24th November 2024, the NSS Unit of SR University actively participated in the “Warangal Historical Run and Ride” conducted at the iconic Fort Warangal. The event took place from 8:00 AM to 10:00 AM, and 23 volunteers contributed to its smooth execution under the guidance of Dr. K. Ravindar, NSS Program Coordinator.

Volunteers were involved in distributing water bottles, food packets, and medals to the event participants. Their timely and organized service ensured that the participants remained hydrated and energized throughout the run and ride.

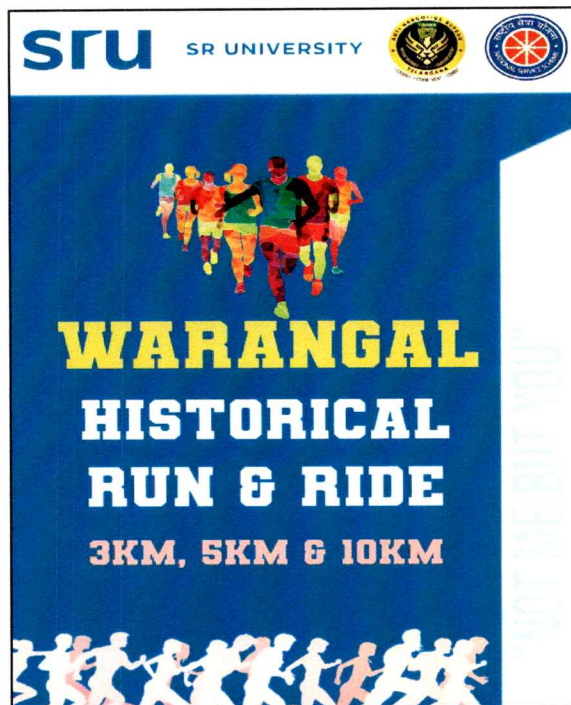

Outcome:

The volunteers' support was appreciated by event organizers and participants alike. Their involvement contributed to the overall success and professional execution of the event. The activity also instilled values of public service, teamwork, and event coordination among the student volunteers.

Impact on Society:

This event not only promoted physical fitness and heritage awareness among the public but also demonstrated the youth's role in community-based service. It fostered civic engagement and showcased the effectiveness of student volunteerism in public events.
