Description:

The SRU–NSS Unit organized a Women Empowerment Awareness Program at Warangal Fort, 37 Division, Warangal on 13 February 2026. The program aimed to educate women and government school students about the importance of women's education, equal rights, safety, and self-development.

NSS volunteers delivered speeches on gender equality, legal rights, health awareness, and the importance of self-confidence. Interactive sessions and motivational talks were conducted to encourage young girls to become independent and achieve their goals through education.

Participants actively engaged in discussions about the role of women in society and the importance of equal opportunities. The program concluded with a pledge by participants to promote women empowerment and build a progressive society.

Outcomes:

- Participants gained awareness about women's legal rights and protection laws.
- Increased understanding about the importance of girls' education.
- Improved confidence and motivation among girl students.
- Strengthened awareness on gender equality and social responsibility.
- Encouraged youth participation in community development activities.
- Positive response and appreciation from local community and school authorities.

Impact on Society:

- Promotes equal opportunities for women in education and employment.
- Helps reduce gender discrimination and social inequality.
- Encourages women to become self-dependent and confident.
- Builds awareness about legal protection and safety measures for women.
- Strengthens the role of youth in supporting social change and empowerment.
- Contributes to creating a progressive and inclusive society.
