SR UNIVERSITY NSS LEADS ANTI-DRUG RALLY IN WARANGAL

(Capital information) Warangal, Mulugu, March 29: The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of SR University organized a massive awareness rally titled "Say No to Drugs: Youth Rally for a Drug-Free Society" on Sunday, aiming to sensitize the public—particularly the youth—about the growing menace of drug abuse. The rally commenced at the Warangal Bus Stand and proceeded up to Kashi-bugga Circle, drawing participation from a large number of NSS volunteers and students. Carrying placards and raising impactful slogans such as "Say No to Drugs," "Youth for a Drug-Free Society," and "Healthy Youth, Strong Nation," participants created significant awareness among passersby and local residents. Speaking on the occasion, NSS Programme Officer of SR University emphasized the urgent need to curb substance abuse among youngsters and highlighted the role of educational institutions in shaping responsible citizens. "Drug addiction not only affects individuals but also disrupts families and society at large. Youth must channel their energy into constructive activities like education, sports, and social service," the officer noted. During the rally, volunteers actively engaged with the public, explaining the harmful physical, mental, and social consequences of drug abuse. Pamphlets were distributed, and awareness messages were conveyed to encourage people to adopt a healthy, disciplined lifestyle. The programme also underlined the importance of collective community efforts in tackling the issue and called for stronger participation from parents, teachers, and local authorities. The event concluded on a successful note with participants pledging to contribute towards building a drug-free society. The NSS Unit appreciated the enthusiastic involvement of students and reaffirmed its commitment to organizing more such social awareness initiatives in the future.
