Special Invitation

- Dr. K. Ravindar, NSS Coordinator, SR University

Participants

- 50 NSS Volunteers, SR University

Objective:

1. To promote cleanliness and sanitation in and around historical monuments.
2. To raise awareness about heritage conservation among youth.
3. To encourage NSS volunteers to participate in nation-building through cleanliness drives.
4. To strengthen collaboration between universities and national institutions like ASI.

Description:

The NSS Unit of SR University, in collaboration with the Archaeological Survey of India (Hyderabad Circle), organized the Sub-Swachhata Hi Seva Program at the historic Fort Warangal. The event started with an inaugural address by the Chief Guest and dignitaries, highlighting the importance of maintaining cleanliness and preserving cultural heritage.

Volunteers actively participated in cleaning activities around the fort premises, removing plastic waste, and spreading awareness among local visitors about eco-friendly practices. The Archaeological Survey of India officials guided the volunteers on methods of heritage conservation and sustainable cleanliness drives.

Outcome:

1. Cleanliness Drive: Fort premises were cleaned and made more visitor-friendly.
2. Awareness Creation: Visitors and local people were sensitized about maintaining hygiene at heritage sites.
3. Volunteer Engagement: 50 NSS volunteers gained hands-on experience in community service and heritage preservation.
4. Institutional Collaboration: Strengthened ties between SR University and ASI for future programs.

Impact on Society:

Cultural Preservation: The program highlighted the shared responsibility of citizens in protecting historical monuments. Behavioral Change: Awareness activities encouraged the public to avoid littering and use eco-friendly practices. Youth Empowerment: Students developed leadership, teamwork, and a spirit of volunteerism. Community Contribution: Enhanced the image of NSS as a vital youth organization working for cleanliness and heritage protection.
